Dear Animal Lovers on Koh Samui,

November 2009

This month we have some good news: The Dog and Cat Rescue Center Samui is one of 14 animal organisations from all over the world that made it into the end selection for the GOLDEN PAW 2009. The prize money for the winner is a proud 5000 Euro, presented by Tasso each year. In the event of winning, we will use the money for building our new operation room at the shelter in Baan Taling Ngam. If you want to support us with your vote, please go to <http://www.tasso.net/Tierschutz/Die-goldene-Pfote/Kategorie-Ausland.aspx> Keep one's paws crossed!

This week we had another film director and her team from Bangkok visiting and the cameras were rolling one more day in order to complete the movie for the German TV station PRO7. This time without the volunteers, instead, it was about a day in my life. In the eyes of the boss of PRO7, the DRCS itself didn't play a big enough role.

Werner and I are leaving for Germany on the 17th December until the 5th January and Allison from Scotland will keep the position in Chaweng one more time. Tom is back from Switzerland and together with Janine and Linda and Bärbel and Günter who have been living in Lipa Noi for 3 months and helping every day at the shelter will also be around over Christmas. These six will make sure that I don't have to worry about a thing.

Hello! I'm Doris and thanks to a lot of daily medication and never-ending attention from the lovely volunteers, I start to look like a real dog again!

A special ThankYou to the staff of ZAZEN for collecting 2500 Baht for the Dog and Cat Rescue Center!!

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists and everyone living on this island. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!

Best wishes
Brigitte
