July 2014

Dear Animal Lovers on Koh Samui,

We would like to THANK EVERYONE who has supported the paralysed dog MAA from the Temple WAT PLAI LAEM. We were overwhelmed with help and her wheelchair is already on the way. It turned out that some of the 'supporters' of another temple - the WAT PANG BUA in Chaweng have a big problem with some of the dogs living with the monks there and have expressed plans of having them removed by the government. Even the monks stood up for the dogs and asked us for help. Thankfully the guys who want the dogs away assured us that nothing will be done in the next 2 weeks but what's then is still unclear. The monks came up with the idea of building a fence around their houses in order to keep the dogs close to the monks and avoid further problems. If that's what has to be done, we will of course use some of the money we received for the Temple-dog Maa and build a fence at the other temple in order to protect the almost 60 dogs living there (all neutered and fully vaccinated by our Temple-Team!)

More bad news comes from CENTRA COCONUT BEACH RESORT SAMUI in Ban Pang Ka. After complaints from the management over the stray dogs there, we had an appointment to come by and help catching and removing them. One day before we turned up, three dogs had already disappeared and one dog was found poisoned and almost died in the arms of animal friendly hotel guests Line Aronsen and Silke Nilsen from Norway. Thankfully they reacted fast and gave the poisoned dog charcoal and row eggs and so saved his life. The dog LESS is now at our shelter and is stable. Line and Silke found poison-leftovers on the hotel property! IMAGINE WHAT HAPPENS IF A CHILD FINDS AND EATS IT....!!? The manager had no real explanation for this terrible action and has refused to tell us where they have dumped the other three dogs....

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!

Best wishes
