Dear Animal friends

January 2021

More and more dogs and cats depend on our help while the island is slowly being deserted. Many Thais have given up hope that the tourism will be revived in the foreseeable future and have returned to their home villages (mostly in Isan). Many houses have been abandoned and the dogs wander around the deserted streets.

At the old pier in Thong Krut, there are already 130 hungry mouths to feed daily. Every day the number increases as Thais and foreigners dump their dogs in that area. Many puppies with and without a mother have temporarily found refuge there and are fed regularly. Many thanks to Rod and Julia who go every day to take care of the poor souls. We provide them with dry food and with medication when necessary. Please help the dogs at the old pier and donate food.

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists, for which the tourists are grateful. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!
