Dear Animal Lovers on Koh Samui,

May 2009

Brigitte and her husband Werner, the boss of the Dog and Cat Rescue Center, are in Germany at the moment and we volunteers are giving our best to keep the DRCS up and running. Of course our manager Khun Wit is worth a million and is doing an amazing job every single day. Along with the long term volunteers Jay, Linda, Kelli and Tom, our dedicated volunteers Martina, Jörg and Kathrin came all the way from Germany to help out as well. Martina is doing an amazing job by making sure things are going smoothly at the DRCS house/office in Chaweng.

We always welcome animal friends who want to help out at the shelter. It doesn't matter if you want to come and help for only one day (like for example the school class from Australia, see picture) or for a longer time like our devoted long term volunteers who have been supporting the DRCS with their time for years. Simply go to the shelter and give the animals there some of your time and love. Especially the ones sitting in a box who are desperate for any kind of attention. Come and pay us a visit! We can always use an extra pair of hands. We have no expectations; you can simply have some fun spending time with the animals. However, if you prefer to be more involved in the day to day running of the centre, someone will point you in the direction of jobs needing done.

Thank you very much for all your help. We hope we can count on your continued support so that we can make even more progress in the future. We believe our efforts to make Koh Samui more animal-friendly have made it a happier and safer place for tourists and everyone living on this island. Our four-legged friends are most grateful for your contribution!

Best wishes
The volunteers for Brigitte
